

I am opposed to the FCC relaxing the restrictions on one corporation owning a newspaper and a television station in the same geographic area. Americans need more sources of information, not fewer.